

STOP BULLYING

NOW !!

Author Kenn Doane grew up in a small town in Central MA. Raised by a single mother, he excelled in sports at his local high school. He went on to achieve his dream of becoming a professional wrestler with WWE.

For the last 8 years Kenn has spent his time speaking across the nation. Using the experiences he witnessed during that time, he decided to write Billy's Bully, his children's book focusing on bullying. Now Kenn divides his time between his pursuit to obtain his degree from Nichols College and speaking to administrators, teachers, students and communities on bullying, leadership and team building.

Bring Kenn to your school to teach your students how to recognize bullies, what to do if they are bullied, and how to distinguish between conflict and bullying. Teachers and staff will also learn many identifiers and strategies to prevent bullying.
