

Anti-Bullying/Motivational Speaker Kenneth L. Doane is now booking school events for 2013

If you're looking for an motivational speaker with a great message who delivers life advice for youth and teens, then consider Kenneth L. Doane for your next school assembly.

Kenneth L. Doane's unique presentation encourages and empowers teens to excel on a personal level, which in turn creates a higher level of self-esteem, self-respect and academic success! Kenn urges students to pursue goals that they thought might not be attainable.

Kenneth chronicles his experiences as a wrestler, author, athlete and current college student to educate students and communities specifically focusing on accepting others' differences and the long-term effect that bullying can have on its victims. Kenn's message has helped parents, teachers, communities and school districts combat bullying through his message of acceptance of all.
